Portrait: Worked as a sound technician while doing a degree in civil engineering at the Karlsruhe Institute of Technology. Gained a diploma at the Fraunhofer Institute in Stuttgart. Music and architecture as a cultural and emotional motivation for technology and engineering. Understanding the future viability of our actions as an overarching task based on social responsibility. Long-standing site manager with Gartenmann Engineering in Zurich and deputy managing director, now managing director of Gartenmann Engineering. Family and sport provide a counterbalance. Travelling with a tent or in a VW camper provides a sense of freedom. Everyone should have the right to a fulfilling job and task.
